D2000 GrEditor

The process D2000 GrEditor - graphic editor allows to create pictures, which display the logged technological process. The process integrates tools used to create relations of graphical objects to D2000 system objects, and they allow to display and handle values of a real technological process.