Picture Information (Work with D2000 HI)

Picture information

Pressing the button CTRL+SHIFT and right-mouse button above a picture opens the information dialog box that displays basic information on the picture. The information is for D2000 system application developers.

Title	Picture window title (title may be defined by the function %HI_SetPictureTitle).
Name	Picture name.
Descr.	Picture description.
InstNr.	Instance number.
Process info	Special window containing informations about pictures and graphs.
Edit object	Edit object. Only when process Gr.Editor is running.
Cancel	Close window

The subpicture of picture contains in addition to basic information also the information about parent picture.

ParentName	Name of parent picture, in which other picture is placed.
ParentDescr.	Description of parent picture, in which other picture is placed.
ParentInstNr.	Instance number of parent picture, in which other picture is placed.
ObjectNr.	Object number of parent picture, in which other picture is placed.
refVarID	Name of reference variable of graphic object from parent picture, in which other picture is placed.

Note: After the information window with the information on picture is opened, the picture name is automatically inserted into the clipboard.