LICENCE AGREEMENT

The Licence Agreement is an agreement between :

- Customer (licence user of D2000 Programs)
- Ipesoft company (provider and owner of the copyright laws of the 2000 Programs),in using licences of the D2000 Programs, Programs documentation and in using technical support services for the D2000 Programs.

Please read carefully the following terms of the Licence Agreement. By using of a Programs licence (Programs licence installation, copying and other use for data processing in application), the Customer is to be bound by the terms of the Licence Agreement. If You do not agree to any of the terms of the Licence Agreement, we ask you for immediate return of you licence including media and documentation.

1. General Terms

Terms are written with the initial upper-case letter and their meaning is as follows :

1.1. The Agreement is this Licence Agreement for using licences of the D2000 Programs.

1.2. Program is a software in the form of source code or Application program owned or distributed by the Ipesoft company. Program is protected by a hardware key.

1.3. Application program is a software owned or distributed by the Ipesoft company, including D2000 systems and any updated version, for which licence the Customer has the right on the basis of the Licence Agreement and Licence Certificate
