Off-line Analysis

Off-line analysis of the data from the depository databases

Import of historical values, that are stored in the depository database into the table of a MS Excel sheet is allowed by the depository's extension (AddIn) Trezory_GB.xla. The extension works always with one depository database.

The off-line analysis supports Sybase depository databases only (as Oracle depository databases are not independent databases and they are accessible after mounting).