

Menu Bar (D2000 System Console)

D2000 System Console environment - menu bar

The menu bar consists of the following menus:

- File
- Settings

The File menu comprises of the item Exit, which allows to quit the process D2000 System Console. If the user is connected to a server, the connection will be closed.

The Settings menu consists of the following items:

Show running processes only	Enables/disables displaying running processes only. If the menu is checked, there will be only shown running processes, otherwise there are displayed all processes in the text console.
Black console window	If the item is checked, then the tab Console shows information as white text on black background, otherwise black text on white background.
Set interface font...	Allows to set a text font of the process D2000 System Console .
Set console font...	Allows to set a text font of text information shown in the tab Console .

Related pages:

D2000 System Console - environment