

Title Bar (D2000 System Console)

D2000 System Console environment - title bar

The title bar of the process D2000 System Console contains the information on the process version.

The button placed in the left corner of the title bar opens the system menu. The buttons, placed in the right corner, perform the following functions:

- - minimize the D2000 System Console window
- - maximize or - restore down the D2000 System Console window
- - close the D2000 System Console process

Related pages:

D2000 System Console - environment