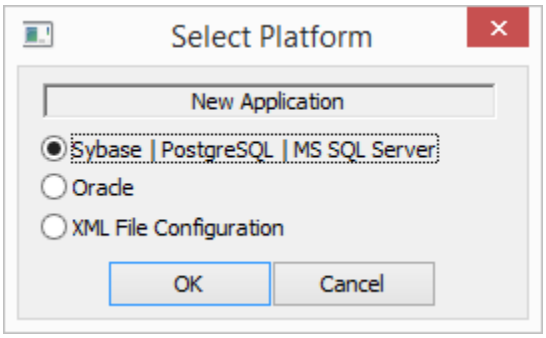
Creating an application on the Sybase SQL Anywhere platfrom

The dialog box used to create a new application opens after pressing the Create New Application button (or by right-clicking on the Application and selecting New application).

In the window, select the DB platform "Sybase | PostgreSQL | MS SQL Server"



After approval, an application configuration dialog will open in which select the PostgreSQL DB platform.

Related pages:

Application management
Application configuration
Parameters for D2000 server