

User Limitations

D2000 Application Manager User Limitations

User who wants to work with the process D2000 Application Manager (d2smc.exe) must be logged on to the operating system with the administrator access rights.

However, user who has no special access rights, set in operating system Windows, can perform only limited activities which relate to process D2000 Application Manager.

The activities performed by user who has no special access rights (set in Windows):

Database:

- set parameters browsing

Applications:

- set parameters browsing

The activities that require the special access rights (set in Windows):

Database:

- creating
- parameters editing
- deleting

Applications:

- creating
- parameter editing
- adding to redundancy
- deleting
- start-up
- stop
- archive
 - creating
 - editing
 - deleting

Console Management

Network Management

Process:

- browsing
- run
- parameters editing
- stop

Related pages:

D2000 Application Manager