RESUME

RESUME action

Function	Handling an error occurrence.
Declaration

```
RESUME
```

Description If an error occurs, the script interpreter performs the jump to an action which follows the action, that caused the error. It is, in principle, the overlooking of an error (action that generates the error). If an error does not occur, the script interpreter performs the jump to the first action in the script.

ⓘ Related pages:

Script actions
Handling error states
ON ERROR action
RETRY action