

Print the Current Help Topic

To print the current help topic

- Right-click a topic you want to print, and then click Print.

Note

- If you print from Contents tab in Navigation toolbar (by right-clicking an entry, and then clicking Print) you will see options to print only the current topic (Print the selected topic option), or the current topic and all subtopics (Print the selected heading and all subtopics option).
