Rename parameters

Use this dialog window to rename the parameters of application module. The change will then reflect in configuration properties of the member objects that are associated with the renamed parameter.

It opens through the pop-up menu - an item Extended action, in the selection window. There is possible to rename several parameters en bloc.

The change takes effect only after clicking on button Rename parameters.

Related pages:

Application modules
Extended actions